AMERICAN NEWS.

Gen. Sheridan's Condition.

WASHINGTON, June 9.—At 9 o'clock to-night the following bulletin was issued by Gen. Sheridan's physicians: "Gen. Sheridan passed a quiet afternoon, for the great part of the time sleeping naturally. His pulse has been from 106 to 112 and of fair tension. His respiration remained about the same, though irregular. Expectoration plentiful. No fever. Secretion of the kidneys increasing in volume. Appetite increasing."

A Destructive Fire.

NORWAY, Mich., June 9.—A fire, which originated this afternoon in the Masonic block, is still raging. The flames were fanned by a high wind and rapidly enveloped adjoining structures, and the outlook to-night is that the entire town will be destroyed.

A Schooner Totally Wrecked.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—The schooner Berwick, ashore at Rogue river, has become a total wreck. The cargo of lumber will be saved.

Coleman & Co.'s Estate.

The assignees of W. T. Coleman & Co. have completed the revision of the statement of the assignor, W. T. Coleman, made a few weeks ago, in which the aggregate value of assets will be reduced over a million dollars, so that the assets and liabilities are about the same.

CONDENSED DISPATCHES.

Emil Kreitmyer, 48 years of age and a farm hand, by the communistic society of Economists in Pennsylvania has been notified that he has succeeded to the title of Baron Kreitmeyer and to a considerable estate in Oberant, Maulbroun, Wurtemburg, Germany.

Miss Alice Woodhull, who was extradited from England on a charge of forging the signature of John Gill of New York to $52,000 worth of U. S. bonds, was discharged to-day by the U. S. commissioner. Miss Woodhull was subsequently arrested on another charge of forgery, and held for a hearing on Monday next.

Bertha Schofield, aged ten years, was fatally hurt at San Francisco on Friday, by blasted pieces of rock from a quarry three hundred feet away striking her on the head. The father of the child was killed three years ago by a blast in the mines.

A young French woman named Helen Blenfour, committed suicide at Los Angelos Friday morning, with morphine. Despondency over the death of her father, which occurred a few days ago, is supposed to be the cause.

A Collection of Crowns.

The next room (to the throne room of the Kremlin palace) contains probably the finest collection of jewels in the world, even more valuable than those of the holy synod, but not so rare and curious. Here is an assemblage of crowns, most of them coming from the palaces where the thrones were stolen, and some time worn by royal heads. The crowns of Poland, Kazan, Georgia, Astrakhan, Persia and others are more splendid, being covered with some of the largest and most precious stones ever known—"crowns upon crowns, oceans of pearls, rivers of diamonds," as one writer has expressed it. Beyond them are the ancient crowns of the czars, the double one for Peter the Great and his half witted brother being the most curious, and it sits before a double throne, with a place behind the drapery where their sister Sophia used to sit and prompt them what to do and say on occasions of ceremony.

The costliest crown in the entire collection was made by the order of Peter the Great for the Swedish peasant girl who became his wife and the Empress Catherine I, the number of diamonds in it being 2,536, all of them large, flawless stones of the first water, with the largest and finest ruby in the world as a crest. The crown of Ivan the Terrible has some of the rarest stones, very large and perfect turquoises and sapphires of great purity and value. In this room is a large casket of solid gold, which contains the code of the Czar Alexis.—W. E. Curtis in Chicago News.

True Agents in Minnesota.

In Minnesota a state law compels all agents for trees and nursery stock to have in their possession a certificate setting forth the name, occupation and residence of their principals, and a statement as to where the stock is grown, together with a bond in the sum of $2,000 to save harmless any citizen of the state who shall be defrauded by any false or fraudulent representations in any manner. Any agent refusing to comply as above is liable to fine and imprisonment.—Chicago Times.

Interesting Tapestries.

Two interesting tapestries, the "Marchande de Poissons" and the "Marchande de Legumes," signed Franz van der Borcht, have just been received at the Gobelins museum, to which they were bequeathed by M. His de Butenval. The curiosities of the Gobelins have also been enriched by the present of a pair of Chinese tapestries, depicting celestial sheep, rams, hares and "roosters." The donor is M. Colin de Plancy, by whom these works were brought from China.—Chicago Herald.

Dakota's Big County.

The Griggs County (D. T.) Courier calls attention to the fact that Griggs county contains room enough to seat the entire population of the globe in arm chairs within its limits, allowing each person a space of thirteen square feet. The county has an area of 720 square miles, or over 20,000,000,000 square feet, and the world's population is about 1,500,000,000. The actual population of the county is 3,000 and some blizzards.—Detroit Free Press.

LARGE OPIUM SEIZURE.

One Thousand Pounds of the Drug Seized at Indianapolis.

The Circuitous Route Taken by the Consignment from Victoria—Arrest of Several Agents Concerned in the Matter.

[Special to THE COLONIST.]

PORT HURON, Mich., June 9.—For several weeks past Jas. McHale, Chicago, and Wm. Hussey, New York, special agents of the treasury department, have been on the trail of a ton of opium which left Victoria, B. C., about May 8th, consigned to Fran Yon Now, 87 Church street, Toronto, the eastern agent of "Opium Pete," the head of a gigantic opium smuggling ring in San Francisco. It arrived in Toronto on May 18th. Several days ago 1,000 pounds, valued at $20,000, were shipped to Mooretown, Ont., five miles below this point, where they were run across the river in small boats and delivered to a fence by the name of "Saunders," who keeps a small grocery two miles down the river. The consignment was taken the same night to Smith's creek, a small stream on the Grand Trunk railway, whence it was shipped by express to J. Winters, Indianapolis. Collector Ward telegraphed to the survey at that city to arrest the consignee and seize the opium. This was done yesterday and the prisoner proves to be Chrrles Labelle, of Sarnia. Collector Ward ordered the arrest of Saunders, and he was taken into custody. Enough evidence is being secured upon searching his premises to make the case warm for him. The man Labelle, captured at Indianapolis, will be brought here. It has long been known to the treasury department that a gang has been smuggling large amounts of this stuff into the country but until now efforts to break up the traffic have been unavailing.

POLICE COURT.

Kate Marbel Defends Herself and Creates Much Amusement—Other Cases.

(Before Judge Richards.)

When the court opened yesterday morning a large crowd was present to hear the case of Kate Marbel, charged with being a keeper of a house of ill-fame. The first cases taken up were charges of drunkenness against Edward Russell and Charley Reed, an American Indian. They were fined $5 each or one week.

John Haines, charged with indecent exposure, was fined $10 or one month, and J. P. Houlihan, charged with fast driving, was remanded until to-morrow.

THE BAWDY HOUSE CASE.

In speaking about the charge preferred against Kate Marbel, Supt. Bloomfield said a complaint had been laid that a young girl had been inveigled from a house where she was employed as a servant, and was in a house of ill-fame. The police entered the house, arrested the occupants, and a charge was preferred against the mistress.

The proprietor of an hotel swore to the information, which charged the keeper, Ellen Westley and Ella Ham with unlawfully detaining a girl named Lizzie Rogers in the house of ill-fame. His honor, at the request of the superintendent, discharged three of the women, after which the keeper was proceeded against.

The person who laid the information deposed as follows—Lizzie Rogers was employed by me three weeks ago when she was seeking employment; referred her to my wife and she was engaged; the girl worked for six days and left my employ last Monday; she was employed by me as cook at a monthly salary; she did not leave with my consent; the girl said she was going to a party on Monday night and returned on Tuesday afternoon; her reason for not coming back sooner was because she said she was up late the night before; she appeared very much excited; a hackman took the trunk away on the following day and I heard she was in a house on Broad street; went to the house and saw the girl; asked her if she knew what kind of a place she was in; she did not answer; told her to come out of the place and I would find her a situation; offered to take the girl to the hotel but she refused to go; threatened to lay a complaint; tried every means to induce the girl to leave; since I left did not see her; she was arrested.

To the Superintendent—Did not make any application to the inmates of the house for the girl; have known her only during the time she worked for me, six days; she was well-behaved and worked well; take her to be about 20 or 21 years of age. Know prisoner; she lives on Broad street, the house next to No. 10; believe both houses are kept as one.

Prisoner—Is it right and just to accept as testimony what was said in private conversation? (turning to witness) you've just given as testimony what was said between you and your wife.

To his honor—Judge, me and these girls have not had anything to eat since 6 o'clock last evening.

His honor objected to being addressed as "Judge," and a spirited scene was presented to the amused spectators outside the railing. The woman persisted, though, in using that term.

To the prisoner witness said—Was in your house on Wednesday; am well informed of who and what you are; saw two girls when I entered your house; asked for a girl named Lizzie; she was surprised to see me and asked how I knew she was in the house.

Officer Lindsay deposed that he went into the house with Sergeant Sheppard and Officer Lavin and arrested the women.

Sergeant Sheppard was then called, but the woman asked his honor if she should not have been notified beforehand what she was to be charged with, so that she could have had time to prepare her defense. No warrant had been served on her.

Officer Lindsay—Yes there was, because I read it to her myself.

His Honor—Let me see the original warrant.

Sergeant Sheppard—Your honor, the woman would not take the warrant, so I put it into her pocket.

Prisoner (putting her hand in her pocket and pulling therefrom the document)—Judge, I made a mistake. The officer did give me this. Say, Judge, is this your handwriting?

His Honor (smiling)—I am not a witness.

Prisoner—Judge, all I want is fair play and if I get that I guess I'm all right.

His Honor—You'll get that, you may be sure.

Prisoner—Well, judge, I'd like to get some time to see into this matter myself. If you adjourn the case until Tuesday next I guess that will be plenty of time.

His Honor—I wont be here then.

Prisoner—Well, say Wednesday. How much bail do you want?

His honor—How much bail can you give?

Prisoner—I don't know judge; I guess about $50.

His honor—Tut! tut! that will never do. You see, you are charged with a serious crime and if found guilty you are liable to imprisonment for two years. I will just read the law over to you. He did so, after which the prisoner turned to him and asked if that was the latest edition.

His honor—Yes, it is.

Prisoner—Well, can you give me a copy of that?

His honor—I will adjourn the case until Wednesday and will bind you over in the sum of $200, $100 in yourself and the balance in two sureties.

Prisoner—Do I require to have two sureties, or will collateral do. I think if I had two hours I might hunt up the money.

Supt. Bloomfield—What do you propose to do with the other women, your honor?

His honor—What about them? Have they anything to do with this case?

The superintendent called the girl, Lizzie Rogers, up, when his honor asked her what she wanted.

Kate Marbel—She wants to go home and get something to eat.

His honor—You sit down, your case is ended.

Prisoner—It wasn't me, Judge, it was her.

His honor (sternly)—Sit down, you've said enough already.

Supt. Bloomfield—Your honor, this girl is here on a charge of being inveigled into a house of ill-fame, preferred against the woman, Kate Marbel, and I propose to bring evidence to show that this woman has even endeavored to inveigle married women into her house.

His honor swore the girl and then asked her how old she was?

Girl—Twenty-three years old.

His honor—Do you want to go back to the hotel keeper?

Girl—No!

His honor—You can go where you like, I cannot stop you.

Supt. Bloomfield—Well, according to that, all the women are discharged. There is another information charging Kate Marbel with keeping a house of ill-fame. I suppose that is the one remanded until Wednesday.

The women then left the court.

Michael Connor, charged with indecent assault, complained of being ill and his case was remanded until to-morrow.

CAPITAL NOTES.

Lord Stanley Arrives at Quebec and is En Route to Ottawa.

He Will Reach the Capital To-Day and Will be Sworn in To-Morrow—The New Dominion Loan to be Four Millions—Chief Justice Begbie's Reflections on Rev. Starr and His Criticism on Journalists Generally Condemned.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

OTTAWA, June 9.—It is understood the new Dominion loan to be floated in the London market in a few days, will be four millions.

Lord Stanley arrived at Rimouski this afternoon at two o'clock and at Quebec at eleven to-night. A special train of the Grand Trunk railway is conveying him to Ottawa, where he is expected to arrive at one to-morrow afternoon. The reception will be quiet owing to the Sabbath. On Monday he will be sworn in in the senate chamber. Chief Justice Ritchie is unwell and, if he has not recovered, another judge of the supreme court will administer the oath. Afterwards an address will be presented to Lord Stanley.

Chief Justice Begbie's reflections on Rev. Mr. Starr, coupled with the recent criticism on newspaper men, call forth severe condemnation from the Ontario press.

CABLE NEWS.

Cambridge University Honors.

LONDON, June 9.—The degree of LL.D. was to-day conferred by Cambridge University upon Prince Albert Victor, of Wales, Lord Salisbury, Lord Rosebery, Lord Randolph Churchill, George J. Goschen and A. J. Balfour.

Winding Up Its Affairs.

The court has ordered the winding up of the American Exchange in Europe (limited), which recently suspended.

Semi-Officially Denied.

It is semi-officially stated that it is untrue that the government has decided to withdraw the licensing clauses from the county government bill.

Murder and Suicide.

DUBLIN, June 9.—Sergeant McGowan, of the Royal Irish Constabulary, was murdered yesterday by Constable Simpson at Walderstown, County Westmeath. Sword and revolver were used by the murderer, who afterwards suicided.

Death of a Noted Author.

The death is announced of Sir Francis Hastings Charles Doyle, Bart. He was 77 years old. Sir Francis Hastings Charles Doyle was professor of poetry at Oxford from 1865 to 1867. He is known to literature as the author of the military ballad, "The Private of the Bluffs," and a stirring description in verse of the race for the St. Leger in 1886. He published an interesting volume of "Reminiscences and Opinions." He was born at Numappleton, near Toadster, Yorkshire, in 1810, and was the eldest son of the first Baronet. He was a contemporary of Mr. Gladstone, Sir T. D. Ackland and others at Christ church, Oxford.

Austria's Position.

PESTH, June 9.—Herr Tisza, addressing a delegation of citizens, stated that a peaceful alliance between the powers formed the only guarantee of peace. Austria's policy was to avoid conflicts, but defensive measures were necessary. It would be erroneous to conclude from recent isolated incidents of a discordant nature that Austria was incapable of harmoniously developing her entire strength.

A LESSON IN DEPORTMENT.

TO THE EDITOR:—The chief justice seems to have been very indignant the other day because the Rev. Mr. Starr failed to show that profound respect for the dignity and exalted position of the court, which its worthy head thought due and proper. Perhaps he was right. But perhaps, also, those ladies whose nostrils have been outraged, and the pleasure of their afternoon promenades despoiled, by the offensive and sickening odors of tobacco smoke, puffed from a well-used pipe, are quite as correct when they assert that the public streets are scarcely the places where a courteous and gallant knight should do his smoking. Courtesy is due, not to the bench alone, but amongst Britons, to our fair sisters.

Austria Patiently Waiting an Attack From Russia—The Cause of Her Weakness at Home and Abroad—A Quarrel of Nationalities.

(Copyrighted by the U. P. A.)

LONDON, May 9.—The modest assertion of Pester Lloyd that "Whatever inducements there may be for Austria to square accounts with Russia, she will always be kept back by regard for her German ally upon whom she does not wish to trust casus foederis against her will," provokes unfavorable criticism among military men who have carefully examined with a view to ascertaining her probable strength in the event of hostilities. They state Austria has strong reasons for waiting patiently until attacked by Russia, the chief of which is her own internal weakness. Austria is at present ruled by two minorityS. The Slavs who are actually in the majority of the whole empire and practically excluded from power, while the Germans and Magyars who share between them the real government of the empire, each represent almost insignificant fractions of the whole population; but this by no means exhausts the difficulties of the situation. The queer congeries of nationalities which are grouped around the dual monarchy—Germans, Italians, and Cretes, Roumans, Czechs, Magyars, Poles, Saxons and what not—have not only hardly an inspiration in common but detest each other with hatred far more deep-seated than that which exists between the French and Germans. Each nationality is concerned in pushing its own claims to a share in the government and to the special recognition of its language, ideas, literature and institutions. The Germans of Bohemia loathe the Czechs, the Czechs hate the Germans. The Magyars and Slavs are simply names for people as opposite in sentiment and character as any two races in the world. Of course this condition of weakness at home renders Austria practically impotent for a strong policy abroad. The weakness of her army—even the possibility that the Slavs who compose a portion of it may prove dangerous soldiers in a Russian war—the quarrels of her nationalities, the weakness of her Gallician frontier seem to point to her as the inevitable prey of Russia unless supported by the strong arm of Germany.

THE CHINAMAN

is just now causing the British government considerable anxiety. In addition to the trouble to the home government, caused by the action of the Australian colonies regarding the landing of Chinamen in Australia, Chinamen in India are now creating difficulties which are rapidly assuming alarming proportions. Desperate fights between members of the secret societies of Ghi Hin and Ho Sing are now almost daily occurrences, the police in a number of instances having to be reinforced by the military to quell the disturbances. In Calcutta and other large ports the Celestials are in a small minority, and the existence of the Chinese secret societies does not matter much to the general public, but in other parts of India, Burmah for instance, where the Chinese muster very strong, the subject is one of considerable importance to India and affects the peace and security of the civil population. The Chinese throughout India, and in fact Australia, Singapore and Sarawak, are honey-combed by the Hoey or secret societies originally formed in China; they attain their full force and vigor in outlying countries where, under British freedom and law, they find themselves practically unchecked until some desperate fight removes their existence. These secret societies, of which the Ghi Hin and Ho Sing are chief, hold their victims with the grip of a vise, body and soul. There are officers and members initiated in mysteries, with most direful threats, which are actually carried out. They monopolize several branches of commerce and the interloper is killed forthwith. They utterly command the labor market, regulate wages and acknowledge neither law nor justice. At Sarwack the evil was found to be so serious that the government made a law in 1870 decreeing death to every member ipso facto. In Singapore, time after time, they have raised fatal riots, some of which have only been quelled by calling out the military. In Burmah they are supported by the Dacoits, and are believed by the Indian government to be at the bottom of the troubles with the Thibetians.

THE PASSPORT SYSTEM

adopted by Germany against foreign travellers from France, entering Alsace, has undoubtedly added new strength to the Boulangists and large numbers of new members to the Deroulede League. Many French politicians believe that the decree against travellers is a scheme of Bismarck to irritate the French people to commit some overt act by which he might contrive out of them a casus belli, while Germany shall appear full of magnanimity to the last. It is doubted very much whether anything short of absolute necessity would induce France to accept a challenge from Germany in the immediate future. There has been considerable exasperation in Germany at the supposed in Alsace-Lorraine. The conquered provinces are very dangerous grounds for semiofficial intrigues, and unless they mean to fight the French statesmen would do well to avoid it. Bismarck is exceedingly touchy about the Rhine provinces. If he failed anywhere he has failed there. After nearly eighteen years of systematic Germanizing and coercion Alsace-Lorraine are still French at the heart. Any attempt on the part of Frenchmen to foster intrigue or conspiracy is simply playing into the hands of the war party in Germany who are anxious to force hostilities while France is still unprepared.

THE COUNTY COURT INCIDENT.

Chief Justice Begbie, while sitting in the County Court yesterday, referred to the remarks he made on the previous day, and said that the Rev. Mr. Starr was the most insolent witness he had ever known. There is a divided expression of opinion in regard to Mr. Starr's conduct in the witness box, some claiming that he gave his evidence in a becoming manner, while others state that his deportment was anything but respectful to the court. Whichever side may be correct, the Chief Justice cannot justify his remarks, for be he priest or layman, a witness is entitled to every consideration. In the eyes of the law all men are equal, and whether the Chief Justice knew his latest victim to be a clergyman or not, his weak attempt at a joke and the doubt cast upon the evidence were unjustifiable. A judge should be the last man to exhibit prejudice or offer an insult to a person who is virtually under his protection, much less to cast discredit on an honest man's testimony, as he did on Mr. Starr's. The last has not been heard of this matter. It cannot stop where it is. Steps must be taken to prevent even the possibility of a repetition.

WELCOME TO THE GOVERNOR-GENERAL.

Lord Stanley of Preston, our new Governor-General, will be heartily welcomed to Canada by all classes of the people. He is a member of a family which has exercised in English politics an influence second, perhaps, to no other family. It has not for six hundred years lacked a man prominent in the affairs of the country; and more than once its representative has been the foremost man in the realm. The family has a history of unusual stainlessness. Some of its members have been prudent; none of them have been infamous. More than one has lost his life on the scaffold; none has lost it with dishonor. The earldom is one of the oldest held in a direct line. Of the family it can only be said that its origin is lost in the mists of time. Lord Stanley of Preston is worthy his high ancestry, and a brilliant successor to the line of distinguished men who have preceded him in the Governor-Generalship of Canada. He will, of course, in due time visit this portion of the Queen's dominions, as have Lord Dufferin, the Marquis of Lorne and Lord Lansdowne, and when he does come he will receive as loyal, hearty a welcome as that which is now being accorded him in the East.

VICTORIA DISTRICT ELECTION.

The meeting called by Mr. J. D. Bryant, at his own solicitation, held on Friday evening at the Agricultural Hall, South Saanich, has, in a vein of rollicking humor we suppose, risen to the dimensions of a "Convention." It is presumed that Mr. Bryant was determined that British Columbia was not to be outdone by the United States. It was gall and wormwood to his soul that the Democrats and Republicans were holding conventions in which he was not asked to share, and he said, "Lo! I will seize pen and ink; I will hie me to the office of that "independent" sheet the Times, and I, even I, John D. Bryant, will summon a Convention and will uphold my country's honor." The question of a scapegoat then became paramount, and Mr. J. T. McIlmoyl was found willing to sacrifice himself upon the altar of the party of Opposition. There are now two candidates in the field for the representation of Victoria District in the Local Legislature for the seat rendered vacant by Mr. Robt. John's resignation. These are Mr. James Tolmie, Government, and Mr. J. T. McIlmoyl, Opposition. We have every confidence that the first named gentleman will be elected. It would be folly for the people of Victoria District to do otherwise. The Government have been more than fair in their expenditures in the district; they have always had the welfare of the residents at heart, and deserve the confidence of the electorate expressed at the polls in the forthcoming contest. To return Mr. McIlmoyle would be to seriously affect the best interests of the constituency, and to give expression to a policy of retrogression, which cannot reflect the honest views of the great majority of the voters. To send Mr. Tolmie to the Legislature would be to continue in accord with a Government which has done much during its term of office to advance the fortunes of British Columbia, which is still striving in a spirit of enterprise to develope the Province and aid its growing industries and to elect him would be to bear testimony to the fact that the Government's endeavors for the public weal are fully appreciated by those whom they serve. The electors will do well to sift to the bottom any charges that the Opposition candidate or his friends may bring against the administration during the canvass; to remember the incidents of the last session of the Legislature, when as well on the floors of Parliament as in the local press every position taken by the Opposition was successfully assailed, and to stand firm in the ranks when they are called upon to cast their ballots for a successor to Mr. John. In recommending to the suffrages of the electors Mr. James Tolmie, we do so not only because he is a supporter of the present Government, but because he is a young man who is closely identified with the district, of honorable character and good abilities, a gentleman who will compare more than favorably with the standard bearer of a disorganized and disgruntled Opposition. We shall be disappointed, indeed, in the intelligence and patriotism of the electors of Victoria District if they should fail to choose wisely and well by supporting the present Government and its candidate, Mr. James Tolmie, of Cloverdale.

MANUAL TRAINING IN SCHOOLS.

The subject of manual training in the common schools is one which is rapidly coming to the front and is likely to obtain an important position in the education of the young. The effect of the training given in the schools in too many cases has been to create a distaste for any kind of manual labor and to crowd the professions with ill-trained, uneducated people who might have accomplished something useful in the world if they had devoted themselves to other pursuits. They also crowd in large numbers into shops and offices. It is the opinion of good educationists that the introduction of manual training into the schools will counteract this unhealthy tendency; and if so the experiment is well worth trying. In Philadelphia an earnest effort is being made to work out this idea, and an exhibition held recently of the work produced by the pupls ini the schools gave a very gratifying proof of the success of the movement, although it was not to be expected that any large results could be accomplished in the comparatively short time that has elapsed since the work was begun. A writer in the Philadelphia American, commenting on the exhibition and its promise, says that it is not enough that a school for manual training should be established here and there, but that all boys' schools should be supplied with the tools needed for ordinary joiners' work and light metal work, that every girls' school should have a kitchen and sewing room, and that in all grades and in every school drawing should be taught in a thorough and systematic manner. We believe that these ideas are very much in accord with those entertained by some of the leading educationists and public men of British Columbia though no steps have been taken as yet to put them in practice.

MURDER IN MAINE.

The abolition of capital punishment which took place in the State of Maine five years ago appears to have placed human life at a discount, if an editorial in the Belfast Age, which is now going the rounds of the press, is to be accepted as reliable. That journal says:

Murder is becoming the most common crime. Within the last three months three of the most shocking and unnatural murders have been committed; and there appears to be no more apparent hesitancy in committing the crime than any of the inferior felonious crimes. And it has come to pass, that no person who had the misfortune to incur the revenge of another, is the subject of the cupidity or lust of another, feels that the law affords him or her any protection. Whither are we tending? Is the alternative coming that we must arm for self-protection; barricade our homes, test our food before eating, and look for an assassin behind every bush and stump? Our State Prison is fast filling up with murderers who, from the unconcern they manifest in regard to their punishment and the expressions they let fall, show that they have already considered without dread what their punishment will be in case of detection. Are we to go on and build new prisons till the guarding of them shall become a perilous task.

In Switzerland where capital punishment was abolished in 1870, convictions for crimes which previously merited death have since increased fifty per cent., and if the assertions of our Maine contemporary are correct the criminal statistics of that State would certainly show similar results. Other countries should ponder over these facts before remodelling their criminal laws after this pattern.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

The following list shows the annual expenditure for the purposes named by the Methodist churches in the United States:

Support of elders, pastors and bishops	$ 7,772,407
Aged ministers, widows and orphans	180,000
Building churches, paying debts, etc.	5,291,773
Missions, including women's societies	1,500,000
American Bible Society	25,511
Tract Society and Sunday School Union	30,725
Freedmen's Aid Society	184,500
Current expenses of 19,700 churches	3,500,000
Church extension, special aid, etc	280,530
Bishop Taylor's missions	62,000
Publications	1,613,871
Grand Total	$20,161,377

This is a fine showing, but the Methodists have not the whole field to themselves. Says the American Presbyterian Journal: "Almost half of all the money raised by all the churches of the land for benevolent work is raised by the Presbyterian church." In a recent editorial the New York Independent says:

There is a weight and solidity of influence which goes with American Presbyterianism such as goes with no other denomination. The Methodists and Baptists are far more numerous. The Congregationalists are better educators and are more speculative and agile, but the Presbyterians occupy the solid medium ground of combined numbers, learning, wealth and conservatism. They hold fast the form of sound words. Their colleges and schools are scattered everywhere. Their theological seminaries are the best equipped in the world. They give more money for church extension and foreign missions than any other denomination in the country. Their policy is completely representative and thoroughly republican. They represent the best average of American thought and progress, and yet they are not particularly aggressive, not very self-conscious, but they have a reserved strength, a sort of Middle States weight of bulk and sense that is pretty nearly irresistible. One feels always a sort of surprise when he recalls that the Presbyterian denomination is not the largest denomination in the country. Perhaps it can be called the leading one.

Doubtless neither of these churches envy the good things said about the other, but each will rejoice that the other deserves to be spoken of in terms of earnest praise.

THE annual meeting of the Bank of Montreal was held on Monday last. The profits this year are two per cent. less than last year. General-Manager Buchanan gave a review of the situation, referring to all its phases and reviewing the trade of the year. He uttered grave warnings against over-extension of speculation and the system of long credits which prevails in Canada, adding materially to the hazards of business. The crops prospects were not regarded as very cheering, but fortunately Canada is not so dependent on crops as she used to be, as cattle and dairy products were producing a good deal of money.

Montreal, April 10th, 1888.

The Agents "Armbrecht's Coca Wine."

DEAR SIRS,—I have carefully analyzed the sample of "Armbrecht's Coca Wine" sent to me on the 5th ultimo. I find that the wine contains 0.0214 per cent. of Cocaine by weight; that is, each wineglassful of the wine contains 0.035 grammes, or a little more than half a grain of the Alkaloid. Armbrecht's Coca Wine may be briefly described as a very agreeable preparation, containing in each wineglassful a good tonic dose of the active principle of Erythroxylon Coca. I remain, Sirs,

Sincerely yours,

WHO IS YOUR BEST FRIEND?

Your stomach of course. Why? Because if it is out of order you are one of the most miserable creatures living. Give it a fair, honorable chance and see if it is not the best friend you have in the end. Don't smoke in the morning. Don't drink in the morning. If you must smoke and drink wait until your stomach is through with breakfast. You can drink more and smoke more in the evening and it will tell on you less. If your food ferments and does not digest right,—if you are troubled with Heartburn, Dizziness of the head, coming up of the food after eating, Biliousness, Indigestion, or any other trouble of the stomach, you had best use Green's August Flower, as no person can use it without immediate relief.

PRESS COMMENTS.

(St. John, N.B., Telegraph.)

Does the inquiring reader wish to learn who Sir Matthew Begbie is? We give the answer as it is found in Morgan's Annual Register:

"Sir Matthew B. Begbie, born in England, 1819; B. A. and Wrangler (Cambridge), 1841; Fellow, 1844; called to English bar 1844; judge, British Columbia, and judge of Vice-Admiralty, 1858; chief justice, 1870; knighted, 1875."

Sir Matthew has attracted considerable attention lately by one of his judicial deliverances. In the new and yet rather crude town of Vancouver is published a small newspaper called the News-Advertiser, which recently copied from an Oregon journal an article reflecting upon Mr. Dunsmuir, who brought suit for libel. The suit was settled between the parties on the condition of an apology being published, and when the consent of the judge was asked it was granted with some comments upon "the deplorable state of things in this colony with regard to newspapers." He went on to point out that:

"Inasmuch as this journalism affords considerable opportunity for those engaged in it to make themselves noticeable, it is sought after by men of ambitious tone of mind, but inasmuch as newspapers exist in very great numbers it is impossible often in the interests of those journals themselves to obtain men of intelligence, capacity and education to conduct them. Therefore, inasmuch as there is a great number of them, and they pay very little, men of intelligence and capacity usually turn their attention to other courses of life and occupations which enable them to get a better return; and thus it seems that journals and newspapers are generally conducted by persons of scanty education and a vulgar turn of mind."

"Inasmuch" as Sir Matthew held and expressed these opinions as to the vulgarity and ignorance of the newspapers in British Columbia it was quite natural that his erudite mind should recall the pleasant little controversy between the political journals of Eatanswill, in his native country. He proceeded:

"The same sort of thing is satirized by Dickens in his celebrated relation of Mr. Potts and the Eatanswill Independent and the Eatanswill Gazette, and I cannot help thinking that these publications indulge in unnecessary vituperation. They drag out from any dictionary words the longest and most abusive they can find, anxious to throw and pelt perfect mud. This cannot have a healthy, but must exercise a very deleterious influence on society at large. The influence on society at large must be very great, because, unfortunately, the great mass of readers read newspapers more frequently than anything else and accept everything they see in the newspapers. * * * Ninety-nine out of every hundred people here believe what they see in the papers, and in nothing else. And the chances are ninety-nine to one against there being any accuracy in their statements or anything of the kind. * * * They consider that others are like themselves—rhinoceros-hided and accustomed to vituperation. They gloat in it, and read in the morning their lucubrations in which they pelted their mud."

Every discriminating reader of the above portrait of the Columbian editors will at once recognize in Sir Matthew a man of mark, whose love for the journalistic profession there is in no way lukewarm, and whose style has nothing of the "cheap John" about it. The kindliness and delicacy of Sir Matthew's flattery of the British Columbia newspapers is seen in that sincerest form, imitation. For instance, "rhinoceros-hided," "vituperation," and "lucubrations," in the judicial setting in which Sir Matthew has placed them, look very much like vulgar word culprits, dragged forth by some ignorant Columbian editor from as many different dictionaries in which, like Shakespeare's toad, they had gathered sweltering venom. That is, in the true, British Columbia journalistic style. And that dainty phrase, "perfect mud," not ordinary, commonplace, every day mud, mark you, but "perfect" mud, fresh from the dictionary;—in coining that phrase Sir Matthews displays real newspaper ability. "Pelt" is also a good word, taken in connection with "rhinoceros hide," Yes, we cannot but compliment Sir Matthew on the sincerity of his adulation, taking as it does the form of imitation. He has evidently been a close reader of journals of the Pacific slope.

But we must look again to gather the full force of Sir Matthews' compliments to the press. Of course there is nothing in the British Columbia newspapers but lies written by very vulgar and poorly paid scribes, but—the great mass of people there read little else, and 99 out of every 100 believe everything they read in the newspapers. So says Sir Matthew, and, impressed with this one fact that everybody reads and believes the newspapers, he has done a shrewd thing. He wished his words to be read and believed, and he therefore clothed them in the verbal garb of Eatanswill and had them printed in a newspaper.

NERVOUS FORCE.

How to Obtain It.

The loss of a firm character, or the degredation of a nation's honor, is the inevitable preclude to her destruction.

Behold the once proud fabric of a Roman empire!

An empire carrying her arts and arms into every part of the eastern continent.

Rome lost her national honor and her destruction followed.

Where are her sagas, her philosophers, and her generals? Go to their solitary tombs and enquire.

The loss of nerve power in man is the evitable preclude to physical degeneracy, paralysis, insanity and death. The first sign of physical weakness and debility usually manifests itself in a loss of nerve power and vitality.

Here is the starting point for more than half the ailments of the human race. In the days of Socrates, it was considered a mark of greatness to possess a robust physical development. In our days, females consider it a pronounced mark of beauty to look pale, white and dwarf-waisted. Many men cultivate the æsthetic by aping the "dude," and changing night into day for the purpose of developing a fashionable physique.

When a man or woman loses nerve power he or she has lost the key to health and happiness, and is on the broad highway to a life of chronic invalidism, mental derangement and the silent cemetery.

That countless thousands are now suffering from sexual enervation is everywhere apparent; it manifests itself in our homes, on the streets, in the insane asylums, and more especially in the divorce courts.

On every hand men and women with pale faces, weak, faltering steps and wretchedness depicted in every lineament of their countenances may be seen wending their way through life in silent misery, because of the loss of the grand, majestic power which controls the empire of physical development. Full, robust health, with all the nerve and brain power necessary to physical and mental development, is the highest type of manhood.

So degenerate have we become as a nation, it is almost impossible to picture a Venus or Hebe anywhere among our countrymen.

The multifarious causes which have led up to this condition we will not elaborate here; men of to-day care very little for cause. If they can grasp effect and cure at once, they are satisfied; nearly everyone can tell a sad story; of cures, there have been so few in times past a small would record them all.

For upwards of many years Drs. Darrin's professional attention has been exclusively devoted to the study and investigation of these important ailments, and it is with pardonable pride that they refer to the success which they have achieved in their treatment and cure. Electro-magnetism, their method of practice, is distinctly original, based upon rational and scientific principles, and followed by the happiest results.

Electro magnetism, applied to the debilitated system, restores nervous energy and effects permanent cures when all other remedies have failed. Electro-magnetic force is just as natural and necessary to the nerves as bread is to the stomach, and by the same law it gives new life, power and energy. To get satisfactory results we must apply nature's agent, which advanced civilization and education have declared to embody the greatest curative principles known to the scientific world.

It is one of the happy features of Drs. Darrin's practice that the application causes neither pain nor distress, and can therefore be readily administered to the most nervous person. They may safely state that patients under their professional care will receive every benefit guaranteed by science, skill and comprehensive experience.

OFFICE HOURS AND PLACE OF BUSINESS.

The Drs. Darrin are located at the International Hotel, Cherry street, Seattle, W. T. Consultation free.

Office hours, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.; evenings, 7 to 8; Sundays 10 to 12. All curable chronic diseases, blood taints, weakness in man or woman, catarrh and deafness are confidentially and successfully treated. Cures of private diseases guaranteed. Circulars sent free. Most cases can receive home treatment after a visit at the doctors' office.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of Cutting Teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP," and take no other kind. my31-eod-dw

LOCAL AND PROVINCIAL.

Church Parade.

This morning at 10:15 o'clock the B. C. garrison artillery will assemble at the drill-shed and march to St. John's Church to attend divine service.

Proposed Boat Race.

Efforts are being made to get up a sculling match at Seattle on the Fourth between Peterson, Paine, Ball, Seeley and a Portland oarsman, for a purse of $750.

Naval.

H. M. S. Swiftsure, future flagship on the Pacific station, sailed from England on the 26th ult. to relieve the Triumph. The Amphion, a new and fast cruiser, has been commissioned for this station.

For San Francisco.

The steamer Mexico left for San Francisco yesterday at 10 o'clock p.m. with the following passengers from this city: D. A. Crechon, F. B. Walkem, Barney Levy, Mrs. Pallandt, Miss M. Crossen, Mrs. Crossen, and 10 in the steerage.

Benefit Concert.

Tickets for the concert to be given by Madame Christin de La Mothe on the 14th instant, are now on sale at C. A. Lombard & Co.'s music store. Seats can be secured from to-morrow morning until the evening the concert is held.

Shooting Extraordinary.

Mr. J. A. Burkman, a professional trapper and hunter, who was shooting and trapping last season in the Selkirks has within the last twenty-three days shot no less than twelve large bears, some of them weighing from 600 to 800 lbs. All these bears were killed by single shots from a double express 50-bore rifle.

Mr. Ira Wilson Withdraws.

It will be noticed by reference to our advertising columns that Mr. Ira Wilson, who announced himself as an independent candidate for the vacancy in the Victoria District, has withdrawn from the contest in favor of Mr. James Tolmie, the Government candidate, and hopes that the electors will bestow on him their confidence and support. Mr. Ira Wilson's conduct will commend itself to his many friends in the district.

Strawberries.

There is a great plentitude of strawberries and the removal of the tariff has brought more producers into active competition with foreign growers and dragged down prices. Is it not a little singular that the tariff is retained on lemons, oranges and other fruits that are not raised in Canada, and has been taken off fruits that are raised there? What have our city members to say of the principle of "protection" which is thus clearly violated by the new law.

Jubilee Hospital Site.

The ministerial association will meet the hospital directorate and building committee to-morrow morning at eleven o'clock, when the site matter will receive a fair discussion. Those who took an interest in forwarding the Jubilee hospital scheme are fully aware of the difficulties which were met and surmounted by the committee, and if the Cadboro bay site is retained it will meet with the approval of a very large number of prominent citizens and generous contributors, who would, in the event of a return to the present Royal hospital site, be greatly dissatisfied. However, the members of the board and committee are leading business and professional men, and the matter will receive fair treatment.

The Begbie-Starr Incident.

Some ill-advised friend of Rev. Mr. Starr has caused a communication to be published in the evening paper, insinuating that the rev. gentleman this evening would launch an anathema at the head of the chief justice. The Methodist church will be crowded to-night, but it is trusted that the incident of Thursday will not be the text of Mr. Starr's discourse. The pulpit has its legitimate functions, as well as the bench, and when a member of either transgresses, he places himself in an unfortunate position. The house of God is not the place in which secular strife should be encouraged. The precepts of the great Head of the church should be all powerful to-day, and the vexations of the world banished from his sanctuary.

Vancouver Coal Company.

The Canada Gazette says: From the accounts of the Vancouver Coal Mining & Land Company, Limited, it appears that the gross profit for the year 1887 was £15,461, and the expenditure £26,269, leaving a net loss of £10,808. The report to be submitted on the 29th instant states that the direct financial loss to the company from the explosion at the mine in May last was £11,066, which was less serious than the directors had anticipated. The contracts existing at the time of the disaster have nearly all been carried out, the purchasers having granted extra time for delivery. The price of coal, it is added, now rules higher than for many years past, and recent contracts are at remunerative prices, while but for the disaster at the mines the company would have participated in the advance in coal at an earlier period.

The Meeting at Saanich.

A number of people attended the meeting called by Mr. J. D. Bryant, at the Agricultural hall, South Saanich, on Friday evening. J. D. Bryant was appointed chairman and a secretary was chosen. Mr. J. Sluggett spoke briefly in nominating Mr. J. T. McIlmoil for the vacancy in the Legislature caused by the resignation of Mr. John. This was seconded by Mr. Geo. Harris. There being no other nominations the motion was put and carried unanimously. Mr. McIlmoil returned thanks for the honor done him, promising if elected to conserve the best interests of the electors. After making a somewhat muddled reference to the financial position of the province he retired by promising to air his views at more length on other occasions. Mr. J. Shiggett, whose familiarity with the 43rd psalm has rendered him somewhat famous in the district, Mr. J. Downie, Mr. Alexander, Mr. Peter Emery and Mr. Roberts also spoke, and the convention came to a close with a vote of thanks to the convener, the chairman to-wit, and the hard-worked secretary.

St. Andrew's Church Picnic.

The special train yesterday morning at 10 o'clock conveyed a large number of the congregation and sabbath school of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church and their friends to Langford Plains, and the afternoon train added to the number, making about five hundred in all. The place selected for the picnic is a beautiful spot about a third of a mile from the railway track. It is a natural park, there being here and there clumps of trees affording charming places for little picnic parties, while the open plains furnish an admirable ground for holding the games. Cricket, base ball and a variety of other games were indulged in, and old and young entered thoroughly into the spirit of the event, rendering it one of the most, if not par excellence, the most successful church picnic which has ever been held from Victoria. Rev. Mr. McLeod was conspicuous in his efforts to make matters move pleasantly, and during the afternoon proved that he must have been quite an athlete in his younger days. The boys and girls ran races for prizes to their hearts' content, and even the older hands were not above trying their fleetness of foot. The return train brought back the party at about eight o'clock, all tired and gratified with the day's outing.

Meeting of the School Board.

The school trustees will meet the electors in the city hall to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock, when the annual report will be handed in. The election for the new trustees will be held on the 18th instant.

Jeffreys Lewis.

This popular actress and her incomparable company were greeted with full houses at the matinee and evening performances. Miss Lewis won fresh laurels, as did the members of the company.

"Esther."

The sacred cantata of "Esther" will be given on Friday evening next by the Choral society of Nanaimo in behalf of the colliery disaster fund. The ladies and gentlemen are said to give a very fine rendition of the cantata, and no doubt they will be greeted by a crowded house.

The Coming Concert.

The programme for Mme. de la Mothe's concert has been prepared, and consists of a series of vocal and instrumental gems, together with Sir Wm. Wiseman's recitations, which will not be the least in merit on Thursday evening next. Seats can be secured at Waitt's and Lombard's.

New Brick Church Building.

A congregational meeting was held in in the Presbyterian church, Westminster, on Thursday evening, at which it was decided to accept the plan of G. W. Grant. The estimated cost of the building according to this plan is about $11,000. A building committee was appointed, and work will be proceeded with immediately. Tenders have already been received on this plan, and it is stated that of Messrs. Ackerman Bros. is the lowest.

Canadian Credit.

A London cable of Friday says: The Canadian Pacific Railway's 3½ per cent. land grant loan stands at 4½ premium. This fact and the imminent issue of the new Canadian government loan, which it is believed will be a 3 per cent. issue at 92, leads the papers to discuss the question of Canadian credit. All agree that the advance is the most remarkable that has occurred during the twenty years of confederation. Messrs. Baring Brothers & Co. are expected to issue the new government loan on Monday.

Yesterday's Fire.

Redgrave & Ella's candy factory was again visited by fire yesterday afternoon. About 4 o'clock flames were seen issuing from the drying room and a few moments later the bells were rung, bringing the firemen on the scene in less than seven minutes. The flames were soon subdued, but not until about $700 damage had been sustained. The firm have the most complete factory north of Portland, and it is understood they are fully insured, which is some satisfaction to them for they lost heavily by the last fire. The origin of the fire is not known.

A Progressive Merchant.

Mr. J. H. Baker, the proprietor of the popular Bon Marché boot and shoe store, has removed his business from the store two doors below THE COLONIST office, to that formerly occupied by D. Green, clothier, opposite the postoffice, Government street. Mr. Baker has been highly successful in the conduct of his business, and in order to meet a constantly increasing trade, he has secured the commodious store he has just occupied. Although scarcely yet in shape, he displays a very fine and complete assortment of boots and shoes of all grades, and it is his intention to continually have on hand the best lines of goods, which he will sell at a fair profit, believing from the experience he has already had that small profits and quick sales are of more benefit to the merchant, as well as his customers, than and other method. The Bon Marché will undoubtedly continue to prosper under the practical and energetic management of Mr. Baker.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

The Caledonian society of New Westminster is going to Seattle on the Fourth of July in kilts, a hundred strong with twelve bagpipes. It will be quite a feature.

To-day at 4 o'clock p.m., Mr. Isaacs, of Johnson street, will be joined in the sacred bonds of matrimony with Miss Phillips, daughter of Mr. A. Phillips, at whose residence the ceremony will be performed by Mr. H. Bornstein.

Mr. J. C. Devlin, one of Victoria's most successful business men, has purchased the grocery business carried on for so many years by Messrs. A. Bossi and C. Giessleman at the corner of Broad and Yates streets.

The members of the Victoria Athletic club have secured the bus "Young America" and will hold a picnic out in the country to-day. About fifty persons will attend.

There was a raid on the Vancouver houses of ill-fame on Friday evening and 21 women were arrested.

Salmon are getting more plentiful at the mouth of the Fraser, but opposite Westminster they are very scarce. The water is still very high in the Fraser, but it is thought there is no danger of a further rise.

How it Works.

The mode of operating of Burdock Blood Bitters is that it works at one end the same time upon the Stomach, Liver, Bowels and Blood, to cleanse, regulate and strengthen. Hence its almost universal value in chronic complaints. tu-th-sat-dw

Mothers!

Castoria is recommended by physicians for children teething. It is a purely vegetable preparation, its ingredients are published around each bottle. It is pleasant to the taste and absolutely harmless. It relieves constipation, regulates the bowels, quiets pain, cures diarrhœa and wind colic, allays feverishness, destroys worms, and prevents convulsions, soothes the child and gives it refreshing and natural sleep. Castoria is the children's panacea—the mother's friend. 35 doses, 35 cents. mr22-eod-d&w-3mos

CRICKET.

Mr. B. H. T. Drake's Eleven v. St. Paul's School.

During the present season there has been evident a remarkable development of England's national game among the rising generation of this neighborhood. In the city, the High school, James Bay, Corrig school and Christ Church choir can each put in the field an eleven of boys, among whom are several promising cricketers; while St. Paul's school, Esquimalt, taking its entire establishment, possesses a team of respectable all-round strength save in fielding, where they are sadly hampered by want of a ground. Yesterday, at Beacon Hill, upon a very fair wicket, Mr. B. H. T. Drake opposed to the last-named eleven a combination in which the two masters of the school were counter-balanced by himself and Messrs. Drummond and W. A. Ward. The sides were very evenly matched, and after a good afternoon's play, from two o'clock to half past six, separated upon equal terms with a tie on the first innings; the school having six wickets to fall and wanting thirty-seven runs to win. Messrs. Drake and Clinton headed the scores of their respective sides. The former evinced more steadiness than is his wont, and a five and four fours testify to the vigor of his hitting; while the latter, after an unfortunate dismissal in the first innings, fully maintained his reputation at the close of the day. Rhodes, Fisher and Anderson were also conspicuous among the batsmen, and Drummond hit a good six in his modest contribution. Of the school bowlers, Campbell obtained 11 wickets at a cost of 64 runs, Clinton 4 for 18, McLeod 3 for 20. On the other side, Drummond had 5 for 33, Higgins 3 for 21, Drake 3 for 22, Anderson 2 for 19. The fielding of Mr. Drake's eleven was better than that of their opponents, several substantial chances being refused by the latter. Following is the score:

Victoria C. C. versus H. M. Navy and Canadian Militia.

The Victorians with only eight men were defeated by 54 runs and 6 wickets. Bovill played a good innings of 26 for the losers. Sinclair bowled four wickets for 31 runs and Hutchison three for 33. For the combined eleven Sinclair played well for 68 not out, but had a considerable share of luck. Pooley took two wickets for 35 runs and Ransom one for 34. Following is the score:

MR. W. M. ROBSON'S APPOINTMENT.

TO THE EDITOR:—An article appeared in the Weekly Times of the 1st inst., containing a protest to the Lieut.-Governor, against the appointment of Mr. W. M. Robson, as Assessor and Collector for the Mayne Island portion of the Cowichan district, signed by thirty-five persons, falsely representing themselves as three-fourths of the tax-paying and voting population of the district.

A glance over the tax roll shows the number of persons paying property tax to be nearly seventy, while a further number of upwards of twenty non-property holders pay provincial revenue tax, making a total voting population in the district of about ninety.

Out of the thirty-five names on the protest published in the Times, there are ten names of boys under twenty-one years of age, who have never paid a tax and are not entitled to vote, and five or six names of men who have a precarious mode of living and from whom no tax has been received since they have been in the district. In addition to this, signatures of persons resident as far as Calgary and who have never seen the protest have been attached to it; so that instead of thirty-five voters, this voluminous memorial to the Lieut.-Governor contains the signatures of only about eighteen bona fide tax payers—just about one-fifth of the tax payers in the district.

The article further states that a petition in favor of W. T. Collinson's appointment, signed by three-fourths of the voters, was sent to the government, but that the government decided to appoint Mr. W. M. Robson, as Assessor and Collector. If minors and non-voters and non-taxpayers are to be taken into consideration, I have no doubt that Collinson had a goodly number of signatures to his petition, but if the majority of the bona fide settlers, are supposed to have any weight with governments, then I think that the present government is to be congratulated on the very wise and judicious appointment it has made.

The protest is obviously the outcome of the wounded vanity and self-conceit of Collinson, the disappointed office-seeker, who has adopted that method of venting his spleen on the government.

THE 24TH OF MAY AT THE GOOSE ISLANDS.

The Bella Bella Indians, staying at the village of Esquimault, on one of the Goose Islands, for fur seal hunting, celebrated Her Majesty's birthday with a feast, games, etc. About 2 o'clock the Indians with their families turned out and proceeded to a sandy place near the village, the firemen turning out in red and a few of the local volunteers in blue, headed by a small portion of their band. After going through some drill and a few manœuvres, etc., the volunteers fired a salute. The whole of the people then gave three cheers for Her Majesty and sang "God Save the Queen." One of the chiefs said a prayer for Her Majesty and a few hymns were sung. The chief then made a speech in which he said that they were very glad to be under the Queen's flag and to have her laws, and they intended to keep the 24th of May every year in future. The Indians then sat down to their feast, which had been cooked on the beach, after which several kinds of games were played, chiefly a game of football amongst the younger Indians, and foot racing, French blindman's buff and a tug-of-war, and various other games in which the ladies, who had turned out in a good number, joined. About 6 o'clock they all went home having spent a very pleasant and happy afternoon. About 8 o'clock, on the rise of the tide, two good canoe races, between eleven old and eleven young Indians, took place. The first race was a tie, but the old men won the second race. Then a race took place between two canoes, each paddled by ten Klootchman and an Indian to steer. After which these two canoes advanced and retired twice the occupants singing a very good boating song. The band then struck up "God Save the Queen" and thus the day's amusement ended. All enjoyed themselves very much and everything went off well and quietly. COM.
